

Advocacy Conversation Handout

1. Audience:
2. The main thing I want to say is:
(25 words or less)
3. Three key supporting points are:
(Stories or data)
4. What I am advocating for is important to the members of our community (and to you) because:
5. The library (or our community) needs you to:
(The call to action)

Based on The Advocacy Work Plan from Turning the Page 2.0, funded by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation and developed by the Public Library Association. Turning the Page 2.0 is a program of the Public Library Association, a division of the American Library Association. The Turning the Page 2.0 logo and all related materials are used with permission from the Public Library Association.