

What We'll Cover & When

Week One - Sept. 30, 2019

Your journey toward the discipline of Turning Outward is about to begin. In the first week, we will focus on the fundamentals of what it means to Turn Outward. We'll ask you to read an essay, view two videos and consider what Turning Outward means to you and your community.

1. Receive Welcome and Introduction Email
2. Read Essay: On Turning Outward and Being Intentional
3. View videos:
 - Being Turned Outward
 - Story of Impact: Jen Algire
4. Optional Videos:
 - David Seleb, Oak Park Public Library
 - Morganna Freeman, Tallahatchie River Foundation

Complete
by Oct. 7, 2019

Week Two - Oct. 7, 2019

In week two we begin to explore the tangible impacts experienced in communities when libraries make the choice to be more Turned Outward. We'll ask you to view several short videos (30 minutes total viewing time). We will also provide an additional reading, which is an option if you wish to go deeper.

1. Receive Welcome to Week Two Email
2. View videos:
 - View MCLS video (4 minutes)
 - View video segment on Spokane County Library District's Deer Park Library Branch (8 minutes)
 - View video segment on Sacramento Public Library Focus on People with Disabilities (18 minutes)
3. Optional Reading:
 - Sacramento Public Library Public Knowledge Summary Focus on Special Needs Community

Complete by
Oct. 13,
2019

Week
Three -
Oct. 14,
2019

In week three you'll come together through two asynchronous discussions to share observations and insights on what you've learned so far. Links to the two discussions will be sent this week. You'll be able to participate whenever you wish, as often as you wish up to the day of the in-person workshops. We will ask each workshop participant to make at least one comment in each of the two discussions, and to also add a comment on at least one other participant's comment.

1. Receive Welcome to Week Three Email
2. Participate in two asynchronous discussion questions amongst all participants in the two November California Workshops. Instructions and links will be provided in the Welcome to Week Three email.

Complete by
Oct. 20,
2019

Week
Four -
Oct. 21,
2019

You will receive an email at the start of week four with an assignment to use the ASK Exercise before coming to the in-person workshop. The ASK Exercise consists of four simple questions. It is designed to be used between two individuals and can be completed in just a few minutes time.

1. Receive Welcome to Week Four Email
2. Personally complete at least three brief ASK Exercises. Instructions and link to the ASK Exercise will be provided in the Welcome to Week Four email.

Complete before attending your in-person workshop
(Nov. 6 or Nov 8)